

Migrant integration kit

CD - Migrant Integration KIT

The CD-ROM contains learning materials and useful information on financial institutions and financial information sources in all partner countries. The following learning materials are included in the CD:

- essential useful words and phrases in English, Lithuanian, German, Dutch, Polish, Greek, Spanish, Romanian, Belorussian and Turkish
- dialogues on different situations dealing with financial and social welfare issues for simulating real life situations and developing skills and confidence in managing personal matters in a new country
- specific information and advice on how to deal with everyday financial needs
- links to dictionaries

A list of representatives of migrant communities from partner countries, country specific financial tips and good practice examples can be found on the CD.

Project website

On the project website there will be a self-study part where migrants can learn useful words and phrases on financial matters in English, Lithuanian, German, Dutch, Polish, Greek, Spanish, Romanian, Belorussian, Turkish, Bulgarian, Russian, Pashtu, Dari and Arabic. The simulation scenarios for dealing with different financial matters can help migrants to develop skills and confidence when solving financial problems. On the website there is also a lot of relevant information on financial matters helping migrants to get financially integrated in the new society.
